Six Days Hunt in Delta Fails to Find Five Prisoners Who Escaped.

Who Escaped.

TAZOO CITY, Miss., Aug. 25. (Spi.)—Six days of search for the five negroes who escaped from Yazoo county's prison farm near Free Run last Thursday, after murding their guard, have left the officers of this cenuty with but little clew 123 to the whereabouts of the negroes. Bloodhounds were put on the trail within a few hours after the crime, but continued mins interfered with their work and the trail was lost.

But little doubt is entertained but that at least two of the negroes made their way at once to Yazoo City and spent last Friday night in this place. The next day two negroes boarded a freight train at Eden, in the northern edge of this county, and threatened the train crew with automatic pistols when a threat was made to put them off the train. Officers in Yazoo City were telephone to meet the train, but the message came too late and the same was true of Bentonia and Flora.

The police force in Jackson was advised of the trouble the train crew had had with the negroes and met the train at the asylum switch north of alckson. They found two negroes on the train and shot and killed one of them when he refused to halt at their command. The other escaped, Yazoo City officers failed to identify the dead negroes one of the five who had encaped from the Yazoo county farm.

The negro who struck the blow which killed the guard at the county prison farm, if developes, is a desperate character, who was sent to the farm under the name of Will James. He recently brigke into the home of his employer in this county and stole a gun with the avowed purpose of killing another nestre, Additional information comes that the against which resulted in the death of the guard, a young man named Jack Freeman, who is just back from the army, was planned. The negroes were cutting down a tree and when the guard came hear they raised the question as to which way the tree was to fail, directing Mr. Freeman's attention to the top of the tree. James stopped behind him and struck him a powerful blow on the head with his are.

BLIND MAN LOSES IN TIPPAH'S TREASURE RACE

BLUE MOUNTAIN. Miss., Aug. 28.
Spl.—Sam Lewis, the blind candidate for county treasurer of Tippah, who led the ticket over several opponents in the first primary, was defeated in the second by the narrow margin of only 31 votes by an ex-Confederate soldier.

As most of the work of the county treasurer in Tippah is transacced by one of the banks of the county the effire is merely a sinecure, being generally given to some candidate for a piece of public generally. Though blind. Lewis is said to have a good deal of property, honce this was used against him in the campaign.

TIPTON CORPS IMPROVE

COVINGTON, Tenn., Aug. 28. Spi.)—
Crop conditions in Tipton county are much better than they were 10 days ago. a.The cotton crop is ate but is well fruited and if frost is reasonably inte a good crop is expected by the farmers. Early corn is not as good as assai, but late corn is very good because of the general rains for the past two weeks over the county.
